DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1, 4-13, 31-37, and 62-65 drawn to a networked ordnance system, classified in class 102, subclass 360.
 - II. Claims 38, 47, 48, and 54-61, drawn to a pyrotechnic device, classified in class 102, subclass 202.5.
 - III. Claims 20-23, 28, 39-46 and 49-53, drawn to a method of using a pyrotechnic device, classified in class 102, subclass 215.
2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require a pyrotechnic device that includes either a Faraday cage or a substrate. The subcombination has separate utility such as a pyrotechnic device for a networked ordnance system that does not require a unique identifier.
3. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a process that neither requires checking or altering and analog condition or transmitting or receiving a digital test command.

4. Inventions II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case process as claimed can be practiced without a pyrotechnic device having a Faraday cage or a substrate.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- Species A directed to a networked electronic ordnance system comprising one or more pyrotechnic devices that contain a logic device for controlling the initiator.
- Species B directed to 2 or more pyrotechnic devices networked together and controlled by a bus controller.
- Species C directed to a serial network connection.

- Species D directed to a parallel network connection.
- Species E directed to a combined serial and network connection.
- Species F directed to a pyrotechnic device including an energy reserve capacitor.
- Species G directed to a pyrotechnic device including a Faraday cage.
- Species H an altered analog condition.
- Species I directed to a checked analog condition.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
